

Capital Jazz Project

With the Davis High School Jazz Band

In concert to honor the music of Hank Jones.

Hank Jones is one of the rare individuals inducted by the National Endowment for the Arts as a "Jazz Master." In over seventy years as a pianist, band leader and composer, he embodied the essence of mainstream jazz, making him one of the most sought after and recorded Jazz pianists throughout jazz history.

Date: Sunday, March 29, 2009

Time: 7:00 PM

Location: Richard Brunelle Performing Arts Theater (IPAB), Davis Senior High School, Davis, CA (314 W. 14th Street, Corner of 14th & B Streets, Davis, CA)

Tickets at the door: $12 adults, $8 students/seniors, $5 Children
Junior High and younger

Capital Jazz Project: Local jazz musicians and educators comprise the CJP, whose mission is to provide professional-level jazz and jazz education throughout the Sacramento region. Please see their web site: <http://www.capitaljazzproject.com/>

