

Fall concert series kicks off with traditional jazz

Crazy Eights, an award-winning group of young local musicians who bring new energy and creativity to traditional jazz, will kick off the 2011 An Evening at the Vets fall concert series on Saturday, October 15. The series is presented by the City of Davis Community Services Department.

The band released its self-titled debut CD in May. Members are Bryce Korte on soprano sax, alto sax and tenor sax; Evan Hamaguchi on clarinet, tenor sax, baritone sax and vocals; Scott Yamamoto on tenor sax and vocals; Sam Theg on cornet; Andrew Stephens on trumpet, Dana Natov on keyboards; Emma Maul on bass; and Drew Thomsen on drums.

Crazy Eights has entertained crowds at the Sacramento Jazz Jubilee, the California State Fair and Jazz Sunday at the Dante Club. The band's fresh arrangements and accomplished musicianship have helped them to garner many awards. The Crazy Eights are ready to deliver a lively mix of authentic traditional jazz, Latin, blues and swing for the audience's listening enjoyment.

Tickets are $6 in advance, available at The Avid Reader, 617 Second St.; Armadillo Music, 205 F St.; Dimple Records, 212 F St.; and at the Community Services Department at City Hall, 23 Russell Blvd. Tickets at the door: $8. Visit cityofdavis.org/cs/shows. (press release from the Davis Enterprise)

Live jazz music with the Crazy Eights!

Saturday, October 15th

7:30 – 9:00 pm

Veterans' Memorial Theatre

203 East 14th Street, Davis

Tickets: $6 in advance at Davis City Hall, Armadillo Music, Avid Reader, and Dimple Records
or $8 at the door
crazy8sjazz@gmail.com